Property Description

The home sits on over 5.5 acres of lush land perfectly situated at the mid-way point between Dominical and Quepos. The property has room to expand for gardens, yoga decks, and additional view areas. The home is located in the Zacatona community just above the pristine beaches of Playa Linda and Playa Matapalo. Quepos is a premier destination in Costa Rica with the newly expanded regional airport, beautiful Marina, and the most popular national park in the country, Manuel Antonio National Park. 15 minutes to the south is the bohemian surf town of Dominical, with local shops, restaurants, and a brewery. Other local attractions include the Nauyaca Waterfall, Hacienda Baru nature reserve, and all the adventures Costa Rica has to offer. Indoor/Outdoor Living with a Unique Costa Rica Open Air Design This amazing tropical home was custom built to fit into the amazing surroundings. Built with a variety of Costa Rica hardwoods, this house is a one-of-a-kind home that would be difficult to duplicate.
