Property Description

This iconic location has housed many successful businesses in the area over the years. Its prime location on the main road, across from the soccer field, makes this a multi-use listing. With right to commercial and residential usage, this space is perfect for operating a business within all three structures. An excellent place for creating a hotel, hostel or short-term vacation rentals while having the option to run a restaurant, cafe or store front. Easily modifiable and beneficial to an innovative buyer starting a new endeavor. The property measures 549.70 m² in total and includes three buildings. This accounts for two houses and one restaurant space. The first house measures 70 m² with two bedrooms and one bathroom. The second structure is a 24 m² apartment with one bedroom and one bathroom. Additionally, the street front restaurant space is 43 m². The space is currently operating as an active restaurant business.
