Property Description

The meaning of ocean view begins here, this 74 acres property is located in front of the magic Golfo Dulce in The South of Costa Rica, its 180 grades ocean view and more than 1 kilometer of beach front makes this property unique and special, high enough for having a perfect weather and avoid salty win and close enough to make a shore run down the hills and get to the warm waters of the Golfo. Easy access, legal water and electricity are part of the good things around this beautiful gem. This part of Costa Rica its almost virgin, big farms own by unique owners and primary forest all around the Corcovado National Park, here is the real wild life and investors had just discovered the area and are getting lands all around. Puerto Jiménez is the closest town here and Hilton Hotels are just finishing which will be the first Botanic Resort in Costa Rica and The First Marine for the area. Any doubts Puerto Jiménez is the Future now and the next part of Cota Rica to be developed.
