Property Description

A Unique Real Estate Opportunity! Location and Accessibility: Quebradas, a charming neighborhood in Perez Zeledon, is known for its pristine natural beauty and vibrant community. This bamboo farm, situated in the heart of Quebradas, offered the best of both worlds. While it was conveniently close to shops, the main town, schools, and transportation hubs, it retained an air of privacy and seclusion that made it feel like a sanctuary. Natural Wonders: One of the most captivating features of this property was the presence of a river and creeks that meandered through its lush landscape. The soothing sounds of flowing water combined with the serenity of the bamboo forest created a truly enchanting atmosphere. Imagine waking up to the gentle rustling of bamboo leaves and the gurgling of a crystal-clear creek. Bamboo Forest: The highlight of this farm was undoubtedly its magnificent bamboo forest. Acres upon acres of vibrant green bamboo stretched out as far as the eye could see.
