Property Description

When it comes to a parcel of land with infrastructure and excellent reputation for co-existing with nature, Manoa is the respected property in the area. The large farm property has been transformed over the years to include several homes, Luxury safi tents, staff quarters, commercial kitchen and restaurant facility. A large open air yoga pavilion that is also the perfect setting for weddings and other events and ceremonies sits on the hillside with views to the jungle and towering mountains. The pool area with decking and covered rancho and the added advantage of river frontage with swimming holes and abundant wild life round out the property's additional gathering spaces for large groups. The land rises at a gradual slope from the beautiful Uvita River allowing wide open spaces across the 17 acres that are dotted with fruit trees, and still plenty of room to expand the estate if so desired.
