Property Description

This nearly 3 acre property is conveniently located near Santo Domingo Town, just a short drive from the renowned beaches of Samara and Carrillo. Positioned at the entrance of the road to Santo Domingo, this expansive lot offers direct access to the public road, ensuring easy connectivity to the town's amenities. As you enter the property, you'll find a gentle descent to a second terrain level, providing ample space for the construction of your choice. Surrounded by lush vegetation and towering trees of the jungle, this lot offers a serene and secluded setting, ideal for creating your own private retreat. The property highlight is its natural border with a picturesque creek. This scenic feature not only adds to the beauty of the property but also provides a habitat for various bird species and native plants, enhancing the overall ambiance of the surroundings. The property offers direct access to electricity and internet services, and there are two water meters already installed on-site, granting the groundwork for future development opportunities.
