Property Description

Located near the village of Platanillo this large land with softly rolling hills offers almost limitless potential, whether you envision creating a serene retreat, constructing cabins or developing residential homes, holding horses, or start a reforestation or other environmental project. The property's adjacency to a public road makes subdivision into smaller lots interesting options, with each lot promising wide undisturbed mountain panoramas. The combination of beautiful views, accessible location, and development flexibility makes this parcel a prime investment opportunity. All along the middle part runs a forested stream originating from a good producing well connected to a watertank at the top of the property. Not far from the property are three famous waterfalls, Nauyaca, Elysiana and Eco Chontales. The property enjoys a pleasant climate due to its altitude at approx 300 m. with cool midday breezes.
