Property Description

Welcome to this remarkable property located in San Isidro del General, offering an enchanting valley view and spanning an expansive 5951 square meters. With two beautiful building sites already prepared for construction, this property is ready to fulfill your dreams. An internal road connects to the flat areas designated for building, ensuring convenient access to both sites. The thoughtful layout of the property maximizes its potential, providing flexibility for your vision and architectural preferences. The property enjoys the advantage of a well-maintained public road from the entrance, ensuring easy accessibility. The topography of the land is pleasing, contributing to the overall appeal of the property. One of the standout features of this property is its refreshing and cool weather. The pleasant climate offers a welcome change from hotter regions, and you'll have the opportunity to experience comfortable temperatures year-round.
