Property Description

This hidden paradise has now been unveiled for you to discover...Come and explore this remarkable farm and be captivated by its beauty. Nestled in the heart of La Florida, just 15 minutes from the breathtaking Nauyaca Waterfall, this property is a dream come true. Offering several potential building sites and stunning vistas that will leave you in awe from the moment you set foot on the land. Currently utilized for cattle farming, this farm holds immense potential for development into a majestic project with an eco-friendly design or a spacious family compound amidst the jungle. Its internal road takes you along the hilltop of the property and guides you down to the lower part, where a beautiful river flows through the valley, making its way to the ocean. With access from Escaleras and San Josecito road, this property provides the opportunity to connect with Uvita and Dominical in less than 25 minutes based on your needs.
