Property Description

Property Overview: Situated on a 10-acre estate near the heart of Uvita, this fixer-upper hotel combines rustic charm with modern amenities. Located just minutes from Marino Ballena National Park, the property features a restaurant, 10 guest suites, and a private owner's residence. This beautiful location, with its well-kept rustic architecture and manicured grounds, is an exceptional find for under a million dollars in the popular Costa Ballena tourist region.

Rustic Charm and Natural Beauty: The property showcases a love for wood and other natural materials, all sourced locally. The rustic design exudes warmth and offers an experience that reflects the lush surroundings. The blend of stone textures, the wood, and the nearby forest plants create a harmonious environment. The interplay of sunlight and breezes enhances this connection to nature, helping guests feel grounded and relaxed.

Accommodations: The Samsara Hotel offers ten spacious and airy guest suites with comfortable beds.
