Property Description

An attractive three-bedroom Playa Grande property is located in a prime beachfront region. In the Guanacaste province of Costa Rica, Playa Grande is a well-known beach town that is well-known for its superb beaches, great surf breaks, stunning scenery, and an abundance of animals. With its ideal location, one can take advantage of all the local amenities, including the stunning gift shops and surf shops that are close by, the Tamarindo nightlife that is only a short drive away, and the Liberia International Airport that is only an hour's drive away. Casa Manzu is located just a short distance from Playa Grande's primary surf break. It is a beautiful property; upon entering the main gate, the house is on the left. Walking into the house, one will find a spacious shared area, where the kitchen, dining room, and living room are located with a great view of the garden, outside chairs, and a pool with an outdoor shower.
