Property Description

This luxury estate in Portalon is truly a tropical paradise, offering an exquisite blend of comfort, privacy, and natural beauty. Spanning 2.4 acres of lush primary and secondary forest, this property is perfect for those seeking a serene retreat or a high-end investment opportunity. Completed in February 2023, the estate features a total of 6,700 square feet of beautifully designed living space. The main residence is a luxurious haven, boasting two spacious air-conditioned bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms. The master suite is particularly stunning, with a king-size Guanacaste wood bed, a spacious walk-in closet, and direct access to a private patio. The master bathroom feels like a personal spa, complete with a stone soaking tub, double vanity with stone vessel sinks, and a rain shower. In addition to the main home, there is a separate private building with two bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering stunning views of Manuel Antonio National Park.
