Property Description

Welcome to Jungle Boogie! This home is certainly going to live up to its name. This wonderful Richard Hammond designed home is laid out over 3 levels. The 1st level is the kitchen and living area. The second being the bedrooms and the 3rd being the entertainment area. As you walk into this home you are greeted by a feeling of being at one with nature, looking out of the floor to ceiling glass windows into the canopy of the tropical dry forest. Expect to see and hear the local fauna including monkeys, tropical birds and many lizards. There is a half bath on this floor just off the main entrance. As you continue into the main room, you will be drawn to take a seat on the patio chairs to take in all the view! The generously spaced master comes equipped with a walk-in closet, ensuite bathroom and direct access to this levels patio area which covers the length of the house. The 2 guest bedrooms are adequately sized, benefit from built in closets and share a Jack and Jill bathroom.
