Property Description

Located in the vibrant heart of Tamarindo, this property presents an excellent opportunity for those interested in renovating or customizing a spacious family home. Strategically situated to take in sweeping views of Tamarindo and Langosta, this residence showcases stunning sunsets from every level. The house boasts a sturdy hillside design, ensuring long-lasting durability. The expansive first floor provides a blank slate for the future owner to create their ideal space. It features four bedrooms along with a one-bedroom apartment, offering the adaptability to convert each level into a single grand residence. Additionally, there are six generous balconies, each delivering incredible views. Two builders have recognized the potential of this property. One proposed option involves transforming the home into a three-unit building, which could yield substantial rental income due to its captivating sunset views over Tamarindo and the ocean.
