Property Description

If what you're seeking is the most beautiful place in this country, you've come to the right spot: over 20 acres of primary and secondary jungle teeming with wildlife, exquisite waterfalls, natural springs and a breathtaking landscape that will captivate your heart. Here you'll find everything you've ever dreamed of and more. This natural sanctuary is just a 15-minute drive from downtown Uvita, following the well-known Calle La Unión until you reach the magnificent Cerro Del Tigre, after which this property is named, as it's part of this picturesque hill. Access requires 4x4 vehicles, offering great privacy as one of the last properties on this road. Stunning views will guide you to this magnificent place, where you'll hear nothing but the sounds of nature and enjoy the privacy you deserve. Highlights include the beautiful ocean view towards the stunning Piedra Ballena and its spacious building site ready for construction.
