Property Description

You may have thought it was impossible to find a piece of land that had it all, but we have a stunning solution for you. Located just ten minutes from Uvita in the quiet and well-maintained neighborhood of Las Brisas, this property offers privacy and seclusion while still being close to town and its amenities. The lot is situated on a dead-end road, enhancing the feeling of isolation. This 6-acre property boasts breathtaking views of the ocean along with the famous Whale Tail rock formation and the mountains, which you'll never tire of. With multiple plantels or build sites, you can plan a variety of projects, such as a beautiful house, a guest house, and income-generating vacation rentals. Water with Asada is already included, so there's no need to worry about that. A lovely river runs through the property, providing an opportunity to immerse yourself in nature and wildlife, including some impressive grandfather trees that are perfect for hugging.
