Property Description

Nestled within Costa Verde Estates, the esteemed gated enclave along the southern Pacific coast, this extraordinary estate spans nearly 8 acres of breathtaking natural beauty, featuring lush jungles and cascading waterfalls. The discerning original owners meticulously selected this prime property for its unparalleled panoramic vistas, substantial land area, and exceptional degree of privacy that few can rival. Upon entering the residence, one is immediately enveloped in sophistication, with a grand two-story foyer showcasing a stunning domed fresco ceiling and an elegant circular staircase, framed by intricate wrought iron railings and rare hardwood floors. Ascending to the primary suite—an expansive domain that occupies the entirety of the second floor—guests are treated to a wrap-around balcony that offers sweeping views and an intimate connection with the local wildlife, including playful monkeys and vibrant toucans.
